DETAILED ACTION

1. The indicated allowability of claims 40-46, and 49 is withdrawn in view of the newly discovered reference(s) to Weber U.S. Patent 6,038,136 A. Rejections based on the newly cited reference(s) follow.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

3. Claims 40 and 43-46 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Weber U.S. Patent 6,038,136 A.

Regarding claim 40, Weber discloses a mold 30 for molding a package for at least one die 12 bonded to a substrate 14, the mold 30 comprising a first mold portion 32 that defines a package cover for encapsulating the at least one die 12 and a portion of a surface of the substrate 14 to which the die 12 is bonded, and a second mold portion 34 that defines cavities 36 (ribs portions) having a thickness at least as great as a solder bump thickness and that projects outwardly from a surface of the substrate opposite the surface of the substrate 14 to which the at least one die 12 is bonded (see figure 6).

Regarding claim 43 Weber discloses the first mold portion 32 being configured to contact the second mold portion 34 (see figure 6).

Regarding claims 44 and 45, Weber discloses the first mold portion 32 and the second mold portion 34 being configured to define a cover to encapsulate at least a portion of the substrate 14 edge (see figure 7).

Regarding claim 46, Weber discloses the first mold portion 32 being configured to contact the second mold portion 34 (see figure 6).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

6. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

7. Claims 41 and 49 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Weber U.S. Patent 6,038,136 A in view of Tsunoda et al. 5,914,531 A.

Weber is applied as above but lacks anticipation on disclosing the first and second mold portions defining package covers and ribs for a plurality of die bonded to substrates. Tsunoda et al discloses a mold for encapsulating a plurality of die bonded to substrates (see figure 3B(b)); in view of this disclosure, it would have been obvious to a person having ordinary skills in the art at the time the invention was made to provide multiple mold portions to encapsulate multiple die on substrates as disclosed in Tsunoda et al. in the primary reference of Weber in order to reduce process costs.

Response to Amendment

8. Applicant's request for reconsideration of the finality of the rejection of the last Office action is persuasive and, therefore, the finality of that action is withdrawn.

Response to Arguments

9. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 40-46 and 49 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Allowable Subject Matter

10. Claim 42 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

11. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The prior art of record either singularly or in combination failed to anticipate or render obvious the limitations of configuring the first mold portion to define a package cover to encapsulate at least a portion of the surface of the substrate opposite the surface of the substrate to which the at least one die is bonded as required by claim 42.
